

Applying for Membership of the Cosmetic Physicians Society of Australasia

Applying for membership of the Cosmetic Physicians Society of Australasia (CPSA) requires a completed application form:

- All three pages of the application form must be completed and accompanied by:
- A copy of your current medical registration/annual practising certificate for all states/countries that you practise in;
- A copy of your medical indemnity policy and fund membership showing a current policy;
- A copy of your curriculum vitae;
- Your application must be signed by two current Full members of good standing (a nominator and seconder). If signatures by nominator and seconder are not included, yet names are quoted, then those who are quoted must be aware of this, as it will be checked.

Incomplete applications will not be processed.

Payment must accompany your application form: We accept direct debit (electronic funds transfer [EFT]), Visa, Mastercard (not Amex or Diners) and personal cheque or bank draft (in Australian Dollars). All payment details must be entered on the application form (this is especially important for EFT payments). Fees are as follows (GST included):

- $375 Overseas members ($200 if no journals can be sent to overseas members address)
- $550 Associate member
